Jessica + Taylor

When we picture our future, it is entirely centered around the promises we make to you and your child. We promise that this child will wake up every single day surrounded by an unconditional love—not just from us, but from a deeply supportive village of family and friends.

We promise to be there to celebrate every major milestone with joy, while also cherishing the quiet, ordinary little moments that make up a childhood. We look forward to talking to you about an openness plan as we value your feelings and wishes throughout this process.

Meet Jessica

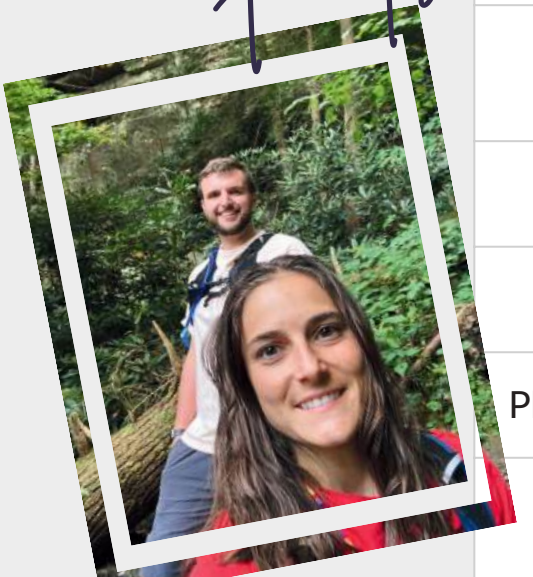

Jess is quick-witted, genuine and pokes fun at herself first. Her cheerful, room-filling belly laugh is entirely contagious. Detail-oriented and driven, Jess is an avid reader who is always looking to learn new things and skills. But her most defining trait is her boundless capacity for love. She is fiercely loyal, deeply caring, and is always looking out for the well-being of the people she holds dear. Whether she is singing enthusiastically (and admittedly, way off-tune) or dropping everything to help a friend in need, Jess brings a warmth and light to everyday life that makes everyone around her feel instantly cherished.

Meet Taylor

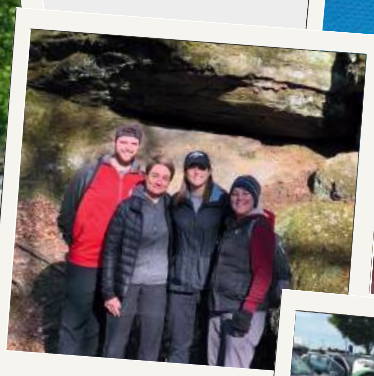

Taylor is naturally charismatic, easy-going, and his smile can make so many feel instantly comfortable. Beneath his relaxed and approachable exterior, however, lies a sharp, highly competitive mind. He thrives on a good challenge, whether he is calculating his next move in a complex game of chess, immersing himself in a video game, or meticulously managing his fantasy football team. Taylor is positive and optimistic. Regardless of a present challenge, he always has a way of staying grounded and finding gratitude in the moment. A passionate sports fan who loves the energy of cheering on his favorite teams, Taylor is the perfect balance of a strategic thinker and a warm, welcoming presence who makes everyday life more enjoyable.

Our Hobbies

Active and curious, we love spending our free time exploring, playing, and laughing together. Traveling is a huge part of our story; we love visiting new cities and our bucket list is to visit every National Park. We are also passionate sports fans, always ready to cheer on our favorite teams, and we love catching live comedy shows together. We enjoy whitewater rafting, tubing, biking with family and friends. At home we love playing board games, building Legos, watching movies, and everyday we walk the dogs around the neighborhood. For us, hobbies aren't just about passing the time; they are about creating traditions and making memories together.

The Pups

Our home is full of joy and a little bit of beautiful chaos, thanks to our two goofy German Shepherds, Archie and Lucy.

Archie is the old soul of the house—your typical shepherd who is intensely loyal, watchful, and takes his "job" of protecting his family very seriously. He is our steadfast guardian and enjoys chasing a tennis ball whereever he goes.

Lucy, on the other hand, is completely unaware that she is a shepherd. She operates with an extreme zest for life, bounding through the house with endless puppy energy, always ready to play no matter the time of day.

Family & Holiday Traditions

The holidays are filled with family, delicious food, and endless laughter. Christmas is a bustling, joyful time spent decorating hundreds of cookies and gathering at our church to sing carols. We honor Taylor's Greek heritage through cherished traditions, such as the cracking of bright red-dyed eggs and the hunt for the lucky coin hidden in the sweet bread. As summer arrives, we embark on big family vacations. We relish the opportunity to dive into new experiences, discover breathtaking sights, and ensure we learn something new together.

Our Home

Our home is tucked away in a quiet, friendly neighborhood. We spend a lot of time in our backyard, watching Archie and Lucy run, while we play games and listen to music. We live near numerous parks and libraries where we enjoy exploring and learning.

Our Promise

We promise to build a life for this child that is rich in laughter, adventure, and meaningful traditions. We promise a home where weekends are spent exploring the outdoors, holidays are loud and filled with family, and everyday moments are treated as an opportunity to learn something new. We will teach them how to be resilient, how to laugh at themselves, and how to find joy in the simple things. Above all, we promise that they will always know the story of your profound love for them, and we will honor your courageous choice in our home every single day.
