

Justin & Brynn

Hello,

We don't know your journey to this moment and we can only imagine how emotional and difficult it must be to look through the profiles of strangers as you consider an adoption plan.

Should you choose to move forward with adoption for your child, we are open to talking about the ways you can maintain a relationship and connection with him or her and our family. Please know we are sending you respect and grace as you learn about us and as you make your decision for your child. Thank you for taking the time to read our profile.

Meet Justin

Justin makes me laugh every single day. He is loyal, kind, hard-working, and thoughtful. From the day I first met him 10 years ago, he has kept a smile on my face. He loves animals more than anyone I know, he is a devoted sports fan, and he has been called "the most fun uncle" by our nieces and nephews. Above all else, Justin's goal in life is to be a dad - and I know he'll be an amazing father.

- Brynn

Meet Brynn

Brynn is the most loving, caring, thoughtful, and intelligent person that I know. She excels at everything she puts her mind to and always puts the needs of others ahead of her very own. Our nieces and nephews absolutely adore her and love coming to "Aunt Brynn's house" to play. Every morning when I wake up, I thank God that I married Brynn. She has made me a better person and I could not ask for a better spouse. I know she will be a fantastic mother.

- Justin

We brought Vivian home from a shelter in 2017.

She is a sweet and sassy beagle mix, who loves kids, treats, and chasing squirrels. She can't wait to protect and love a child of her very own!

About Our Family

- We are both one of four kids (Brynn is the oldest and Justin is the second oldest).
- We have nine (soon to be 10) nieces and nephews, three of whom were adopted through foster care. All of them live close by, so we're able to see them frequently.
- We are both originally from small towns, and we have lived, worked, and traveled in big cities. We decided to make our home in Central Ohio, which we think is the best of both worlds!
- We live in a welcoming and safe suburban neighborhood, where kids ride their bikes to their friends' houses and play pick-up games of basketball. We have a fenced-in backyard and are walking distance to our community's pool and a public park.

About Aunt Brynn & Uncle Justin

"Uncle Justin and Aunt Brynn always spend time with us. Aunt Brynn takes us on special days and I got to have a tea party with her." - our niece, Grace

"It's hard to express how much I love you. You are both so special to me. I am always so happy when I get to spend time together." - our nephew, Thomas

Our lives

Brynn works for a public relations agency. Justin works for a trade association that represents the domestic maritime industry.

When we're not working, we love trying new restaurants, spending time outside with Vivian, planning our next trip, and seeing our family and friends.

Our Values & Traditions

Family: We are both grateful to be close to our families. We spend holidays like Thanksgiving and Christmas together, switching between our two families each year. Each summer, we have our nieces and nephews over for "Summer Camp" at our house - summer is our favorite season, so we hope to capture some of that magic for the kids!

Faith: Our Christian faith guides our lives, and we attend a welcoming Catholic church in the area. Above everything, we will teach our child how much they are loved, just as God made them.

Travel: We love to travel and learn about new cultures. Even when we are at home, we like to try new types of food and watch movies and read books that broaden our view of the world.

Thank You

Thank you for learning about us and reading our profile. Our six-year journey to parenthood has led us to adoption, and we are humbled by the responsibility and honor of building a family in this way.

Should you choose to move forward with an adoption plan, we are committed to matching the level of openness you are comfortable with, and your child will grow up hearing stories about your love for them.
