

Matt, Meagan, Nolan and Jack

We are Matt and Meagan—family-oriented, fun-loving high-school sweethearts, who enjoy living life to the fullest! We have experienced the beauty of adoption as adoptive parents for our sons, Nolan and Jack. As a family, we value time spent with those we care about, working hard for what we have, and experiences that create lasting memories. Our faith plays an integral role in our family; it sees us through the good times, the tough times, and everything in-between. By working together with you, we hope to instill this same faith and create an environment where your child will grow. The following pages are a small glimpse into the journey that has led us to you. We look forward to a time when we can meet you and hopefully become a part of your journey, too.

About Matt (by Meagan)

I fell in love with Matt because of his kind, warm soul, his wit and wonderful sense of humor, and his gentle disposition. I came to discover he was also the most selfless, hardworking, family-oriented person I would ever meet. His drive to achieve his dreams is like no other person I know. That same drive is what propels him to work tirelessly for our family. He is Nolan and Jack's protector, provider, hero and forever wrestling partner! One day, I have no doubt, he will be their mentor, their best friend, and their inspiration. I know he cannot wait for the possibility of being all of these things to your child, as well.

My Best Friend (by Matt)

Falling in love with Meagan was easy because of her humble beauty, caring and nurturing soul, and the little fact that she laughed at all my jokes (she still does). She is the friend you want by your side when times are good and the one you need when times are tough. My greatest joy is watching her be a mother to our boys. As a mother, her self-sacrifice, hard work, and love have helped our sons flourish—and I know your child will, too! I believe God put her on earth to be a mama and given the opportunity with your child, that is exactly what she will do.

About Nolan- 3 years old

Nolan is the BEST big brother! He is nurturing, caring, adventurous, curious, fun, and always asking when friends and family are coming over! He has a love for reading, as well as any and all construction trucks. If he isn't digging with his toy excavator outside or playing with his brother Jack, he's wanting to read a book about construction vehicles. He always asks to hold our friends' babies and cannot wait to have another brother or sister!

About Jack- 21 months old

Jack is such a lover. He is affectionate, fearless, joyful, perceptive, and playful. He looks up to his brother, Nolan, and wants to do anything and everything he is doing. He loves any sport—mainly because it means he can throw a ball! Even when he's in the middle of an activity, he'll stop to run over for a quick hug, then run back to continue whatever he was doing. We have no doubt he will make a wonderful big brother.

Extended Family

We are both the oldest of our siblings. Matt has a younger brother named Mitchell, and Meagan has a younger brother and sister, Michael and Caitlin. We have great parents and consider ourselves lucky to be very close to both of our immediate families—this means plenty of time spent together for birthdays, holidays, or just hanging out. The boys are loved beyond measure! And although Matt's extended family is very big, we're still able to get together for Sunday evening dinners. Sometimes both of our families get together, too!

Our Home

We consider our home an oasis. Surrounded by a ton of beautiful trees on four acres, our house is tucked away and very peaceful. As you look out our windows, you'll see blue jays and cardinals on our bird feeders or several deer eating the corn we've fed them. We know our children will enjoy hiking in the forest, building forts, and exploring all the trails that Matt has cleared throughout the property. As soon as you turn out of our driveway, you'd never guess you were just a few minutes from plenty of parks, restaurants, and shops. We love to host our friends and family for playdates, weeknight dinners and holidays.

Our Careers

Matt decided to become a firefighter because of his strong desire to help other people and his love for a team-oriented brotherhood—plus, his dad is a firefighter, too! His work schedule gives him the opportunity to spend more time at home with the kids. He loves taking day trips with them to the park, zoo, and museums when it's not crowded. Nolan and Jack visit Matt at the station regularly for family pizza night and to ride in all the trucks!

After working a job outside of the home for several years, Meagan now stays home full-time with the boys and loves it! It's truly a blessing to have the opportunity to watch the boys learn and grow each and every day. Meagan, Nolan, and Jack have dance parties, do arts and crafts, read together, go on many adventures, and just have fun!

Nolan & Jack's Birth Parents

We have a mutually open relationship with Nolan and Jack's birth parents. From day one, they welcomed us to every prenatal appointment and involved us in every part of the boys' births. We communicate regularly via text and phone, send pictures and meet for lunch and park dates! Nolan and Jack will be forever blessed knowing and being loved by them.

Traditions, Holidays, Birthdays, and Vacations

Holidays and birthdays are a big deal in our house! You can always expect family over for food, cake, presents, and fun. No matter whose birthday it is, we make sure they feel so special and loved. As for holidays, we go all out with Christmas tree shopping, time with family, as well as visits with Santa and the Easter Bunny.

Our goal is to vacation regularly to get away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, spend quality time together, and experience different places!

Our Hopes and Dreams

First and foremost, we want our children to be loved and happy. We also want them to love themselves, and plan to give them the opportunity for a great education and the skills to be successful. We want them to have fun, enjoy life, and make memories. From holidays to vacations, and everything in-between, we can't wait to make their journey an unforgettable one.

We are excited to meet you!

With love, Matt and Meagan
