US NOW:

US THEN:

THIS IS US...

Hi! We are so honored that you have chosen to read about us. We know that you have tremendous strength and we are grateful.

Let us introduce ourselves. We are Meg & Brian. We are loving people at heart, and we are thankful that you have allowed us to be considered during this journey. We do hope that you know we have had you in our thoughts for a while now. This is such an incredible decision, and we have so much respect and admiration for your choice to explore adoption.

We are so grateful for your consideration as we build our family.

WHERE WE BEGAN:

What is really special is that we first met when Brian was in kindergarten and I was in preschool. Brian and my older brother became best friends. We discovered that our families lived on the same street, and the rest is history! Our families had a special connection. However, after years (15+) apart, WE reconnected and the bond had not been lost! It brought both families back together and now we all share some of the same special times like we did in the good old days! (The picture on the right is us waiting for the bus on the first day of school! And no, the purple theme was NOT planned!)

MEG'S VERY LARGE EXTENDED FAMILY

What do we treasure most? FAMILY. Family and a solid support system is so important to both of us, and obviously to you as well. We are lucky that both of our parents are still married and have been for decades now. There is even one set of great grandparents on Meg's side. All friends and family have been supportive and praying for us during this process. They cannot wait to meet the newest addition!

We love to travel, have family game night, go to sporting events, exploring the world, and even nights in and we cannot wait to do it all as a family of 3!

OUR HOME:

This is our home! We are located in a very quaint neighborhood with local markets and close to the downtown area, the zoo and many fun events in the community.

Our house is amidst other young families as well as some elderly, who have never wanted to leave! (They make the best neighbors!)

We are both lucky enough to work from home, Meg operates an art and consulting business while Brian has an in-home office as a Senior Vice President of Marketing.

"★★★★★ A laugh riot! Well, Meg is, Brian is more of a straight guy, but he'll dress up in costumes for holidays or sports games, and forever dote on and adore and be loyal to his family. They both will! Look no further, highly recommend" Uncle Eric (Brian's brother)

"Aunt Meggie has so much fun with me. She plays with me and she's the best, we go crazy" Cousin Sayer (4)
