

Eric and Holly

A Message to you:

Hello and thank you for considering our family. We are two people with so much love to share. We admire how much strength it takes to consider adoption and what a selfless decision that you are contemplating. Our family has not yet been blessed with children after years of trying, but we promise to give them a life filled with love, education and adventure.

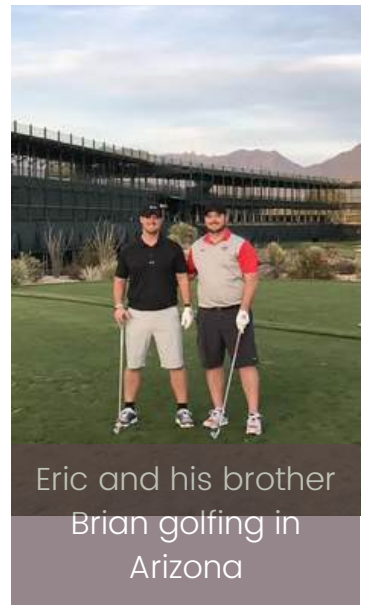

Meet Eric

I am a caring and dependable person who values family, faith and always being there for people that I love. As a physical therapist assistant, I pour my heart and soul into helping people overcome obstacles both physically and mentally. Outside of work I am an avid sports fan who absolutely loves being outside playing golf or adventuring new hiking trails. I feel very blessed to have found a life partner in Holly who shares the same family values and passion for the outdoors as I do.

When I am not at work I enjoy hobbies such as gardening, reading, baking, cooking and spending time with my family. I'm lucky to have found my soul mate in Eric. He is kind, compassionate, honest and funny. We share a mutual love of eating delicious foods and exploring the outdoors. We also enjoy visiting national parks and hiking with our two dogs together.

Meet Holly

When I was 9 years old, I knew my calling in life was to help other people. After graduating high school, and college I became a physical therapist assistant. I am a genuine person that attempts to lead a life by example, focusing on faith and family first.

How we met

Our story began in 2012 at a therapy clinic where we both worked. What started as a friendship slowly grew into love. Our first date was at a Japanese restaurant, where Holly by chance met Eric's entire family. In 2016 we took a trip to the Grand Cayman Islands and got engaged. In 2017 we celebrated our wedding, and the rest is history.

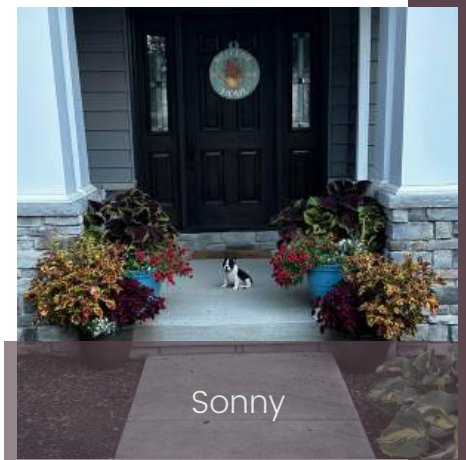

Our Home

Together we built our home in 2019 and it has been everything we dreamed of. We love hosting Thanksgiving, Christmas and summer cookouts in the backyard. Our house is outside of a small rural town. Its sits on about 5 acres and has a huge back yard.

Every year we finish projects that help bring our vision to life and make our home a peaceful place. We recently added a swimming pool in our back yard, giving our friends and family a fun spot to enjoy in the summer.

Our Family and Friends

We are very lucky to have both of our families living close to us. Eric's family lives 5 minutes from our home and Holly's family live on a farm that is 45 minutes away. We spend a lot of time with each other's families because that's just how we both were raised. Both of our parents are amazing grandparents to our nieces and are very much a big part of their lives. They are both so excited to welcome another member into our family. Whether it's going to high school sporting events or getting together for pizza and game night, we always have so much fun and every moment feels special!

Thank You

Thank you for the opportunity to be considered as an adoptive family. Know that if you chose us we will be open to identifying a plan and level of openness that makes you feel comfortable. We are grateful that we have been blessed with a multitude of things in our life, however one key piece missing. Our family is most important to us. Raising a child surrounded by love is most meaningful and knowing you made the decision to choose us will be reflective the rest of their life.
